Eco Connect Wales

Schedule

AGENDA
08.00	Breakfast
08.30	Business Cooperation Session 60 second pitches
09.30	Delivering more homes fit for a sustainable future – and the potential market opportunity The UK needs to raise the quantity and the quality of homes being delivered. Welsh Government policy is promoting sustainable retrofit and new build housing, with the aim of advancing new home quality and performance, and developing expertise. Where are the key areas of potential – offsite, empty homes, garden communities? What are the emerging lessons? And can the expertise being gathered here be applied more broadly across the UK? Speakers Stuart Ropke, Chief Executive, Community Housing Cymru Elfed Roberts, Head of Projects, Pobl Group David Holmes, Senior Development & Standards Manager, Welsh Government
11.00	Networking and Exhibition
11.30	Raising the Quality and Volume of Retrofit Following the Each Home Counts Review The government backed Each Home Counts Review is a milestone in the evolution of our home retrofit sector. Now it's time for industry to build on its conclusions, which means developing the solutions, the skills and the market. Speakers Chris Jofeh, Director and Global Buildings Retrofit Leader, Arup Poppy Potter, Senior Manager, The Carbon Trust David Pierpoint, Chief Executive, The Retrofit Academy CIC
